MISSION APPEAL

On the weekend of June 17-18, we will be visited by Rev. Shaji Silva from the Archdiocese of Trivandrum in Kerala, India. Fr. Silva is stationed at Corpus Christi Parish in Lansdale but will speak to us on the Catholics living in Kerala, many who are fishermen and farm workers, living in densely populated villages who depend on the State and religious organizations for food and shelter. The Archdiocese in Kerala has 80 parishes and 40 mission stations, with 270 priests, and 700 women religious. After the 2004 Tsunami, two schools providing high school education were established. 40 boys and girls, the brightest and poorest are selected to attend. All costs are a challenge. Helping with the costs is the appeal - which will be collected with 2nd collection that Sunday.
